16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

YEAR A - 23 July 2023

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ

The three parables about the Kingdom of God from Matthew's Gospel in today's Liturgy speak to us a message that encourages us to reflect on our attitudes towards others as well as our own needs to be open to God's action in our lives.

1. It is only at the end of one's life that good and evil can be separated and judged, just as the wheat and darnel are separated at harvest time; in the meantime, we remain open to the action of the Holy Spirit in our lives and in the lives of those around us. God can always convert even the most hardened of sinners!

2. We are asked to trust that God will always triumph in the end! Like with the smallest of seeds becoming the biggest of shrubs, so unpromising beginnings - through the Spirit's intervention - can lead to triumphant conclusions.

3. As the leaven helps the whole loaf grow, so God can use what can be seen as evil for good; sinfulness is never a blockage or barrier to God's Plan for humanity. Indeed, we are all sinners, yet God is leading each and every one of us to be fruitful messengers of the Gospel!

And so, my friends, let's read the whole of Chapter 13 of Matthew's text in this coming week... last week we heard the parable of the Sower; and next week we will conclude this chapter on the Parables of the Kingdom.

Let's allow the Word of God to penetrate our hearts and minds, enabling us to reflect on ways that we can try to live up to the message that Jesus has for each of us in our own time.

May the Lord continue to bless you all.

Fr John

Diocesan Synods primarily focus on matters related to pastoral care, evangelisation, and the specific needs of the local diocese. They may discuss and provide recommendations on pastoral strategies, local policies, and initiatives to address specific challenges within the diocese. However, any decisions made by a Diocesan Synod must be in harmony with the teachings of the Catholic Church.

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

ENTRANCE See, I have God for my help. The Lord sustains my soul. I will sacrifice to you with my willing heart, and praise your name, Lord, for it is good.

FIRST READING (Wisdom 12:13, 16-19)

There is no god, other than you, who cares for every thing, to whom you might have to prove that you never judged unjustly. Your justice has its source in strength, your sovereignty over all makes you lenient to all. You show your strength when your sovereign power is questioned and you expose the insolence of those who know it; but, disposing of such strength, you are mild in judgement, you govern us with great lenience, for you have only to will, and your power is there. By acting thus you have taught a lesson to your people how the virtuous person must be kindly to one's fellow human beings, and you have given your children the good hope that after sin you will grant repentance.

RESPONSE Lord, you are good and forgiving.

SECOND READING (Romans 8:26-27)

The Spirit comes to help us in our weakness. For when we cannot choose words in order to pray properly, the Spirit himself expresses our plea in a way that could never be put into words, and God who knows everything in our hearts knows perfectly well what he means, and that the pleas of the saints expressed by the Spirit are according to the mind of God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom. Alleluia!

GOSPEL (Matthew 13:24-43)

Jesus put another parable before the crowds: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field. While everybody was asleep his enemy came, sowed darnel all among the wheat, and made off. When the new wheat sprouted and ripened, the darnel appeared as well. The owner's servants went to him and said, "Sir, was it not good seed that you sowed in your field? If so, where does the darnel come from?" "Some enemy has done this" he answered. And the servants said, "Do you want us to go and weed it out?" But he said, "No, because when you weed out the darnel you might pull up the wheat with it. Let them both grow till the harvest; and at harvest time I shall say to the reapers: First collect the darnel and tie it in bundles to be burnt, then gather the wheat into my barn.'"

He put another parable before them: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field. It is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the biggest shrub of all and becomes a tree so that the birds of the air come and shelter in its branches.'

He told them another parable: 'The kingdom of heaven is like the yeast a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour till it was leavened all through.'

In all this Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables; indeed, he would never speak to them except in parables. This was to fulfil the prophecy:

I will speak to you in parables and expound things hidden since the foundation of the world.

Then, leaving the crowds, he went to the house; and his disciples came to him and said, 'Explain the parable about the darnel in the field to us.' He said in reply, 'The sower of the good seed is the Son of Man. The field is the world; the good seed is the subjects of the kingdom; the darnel, the subjects of the evil one; the enemy who sowed them, the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; the reapers are the angels. Well then, just as the darnel is gathered up and burnt in the fire, so it will be at the end of time. The Son of Man will send his angels and they will gather out of his kingdom all things that provoke offences and all who do evil, and throw them into the blazing furnace, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth. Then the virtuous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Listen, anyone who has ears!'

COMMUNION

The Lord, the gracious, the merciful, has made a memorial of his wonders; he gives food to those who fear him.
